DID YOU KNOW?

- The origins of the L.A. Original Farmers Market date back to 1880 when Arthur Fremont Gilmore and his partner established a dairy farm.
 - Opening day was July 14, 1934.
 - The Market is open daily from 10 a.m. – 8 p.m. (Friday/Saturday until 9 p.m.)
 - Nearly 100 gourmet grocers, restaurants and tourist shops are on-site. Many are family-owned and have been in business for generations.
 - Early celebrity visitors included President Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Beatles, Frank Sinatra and Shirley Temple.
- Today, it is still quite common to spot celebrities in and around the Market.
